CORAM: R.M.S. KHANDEPARKAR &
Smt. V.K. TAHILRAMANI, JJ.

DATED: JULY 23, 2007

ORAL JUDGMENT (Per Smt.V.K.Tahilramani, J.):

1. Heard. Rule. The learned A.P.P. waives service on behalf of the respondents. By consent, rule is made returnable forthwith.

2. It is the case of the petitioner-convict that he had preferred an application for furlough and furlough came to be granted to him by this Court. However, he was not released on furlough. At the time when the petitioner's application for furlough came to be granted, it was stated that the name and the address of the surety were as under:

> "Aroon Gorey, Crossroad Prison Ministries Society, C/63, Taj Housing Colony, Near "S" Bridge, Pais Street, Byculla (W), Mumbai-400 011."

3. The petitioner, who is present in person before the Court, stated that the said Mr. Aroon Gorey is still ready and willing to stand surety for the petitioner. In this view of the matter, on Mr. Aroon Gorey personally going to the Yerwada Central Prison, Pune and producing all the relevant documents including the document relating to proof of his identity as being Mr. Aroon Gorey and on complying with all the necessary formalities, the petitioner to be released on furlough on usual terms and conditions. In addition thereto, the petitioner shall report to the Agripada Police Station, Mumbai on every alternate day during the period he is on furlough. The petitioner shall inform the jail authorities the address at which the petitioner will be residing during the period he is on furlough. The rule is made absolute in above terms.
